As amended June 5, 2011; May 28, 2017; February 23, 2020;
March 28, 2021; March 27, 2022

Section I NAME AND AFFILIATION

Name

1. The name of the parish shall be "The Ukrainian Orthodox Church of St. Demetrius" ("the Parish").

Affiliation

2. The Parish shall be a constituent part of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada and shall be governed by:

- (a) the Charter and Constitution of the said Church;
- (b) decisions of the regular and special Sobors of the Church;
- (c) directives of the Church's Consistory; and
- (d) the present Constitution to the extent that it is not in conflict with any of the foregoing.

Spiritual Services Only from Priests of the UOCC

3. The Parish shall accept spiritual and liturgical services only from Priests in good standing with the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada who have been assigned it by the Church.

Section II AIMS AND OBJECTIVES

Aims and Objectives

4. The Aims and Objectives of the Parish shall be:

(a) To meet the spiritual needs of its Members, and others, through religious activities and services that reflect the dogmas and canons of the Universal Orthodox Church as these are expressed through the particular customs, traditions, and practices of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada.

(b) To provide an environment in which its Members might develop their potential as individuals and members of the Parish community in an atmosphere of Christian fellowship, mutual help, and support.

(c) To carry on its activities and operations without purpose of material gain for its Members; and any surplus of moneys, profits, or other gains shall be used solely in promoting its purposes and realizing its Aims and Objectives.

(d) To provide a centre from which to encourage the education of and preservation of Ukrainian culture and traditions.

(e) To provide a home for various organizations that recognize and support the Ukrainian Orthodox faith.

(f) To provide a centre to encourage and foster community involvement and participation.

Activities and Programs

5. To achieve the above Aims and Objectives the Parish will conduct and arrange for appropriate activities and programs, including, but not limited to:

- i) Worship and Needs (Treby) Services;

- ii) Religious training and instruction, including children's and adult catechism and other classes; spiritual retreats; seminars and lectures;
- iii) Training and instruction ancillary to Worship and Treby services, including those related to choral music; chant; and, duties of servers, elder brothers and sisters; precentors, and readers;
- iv) Instruction in the history, customs, traditions and practices of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church and its historical and cultural context including the history, language, and culture of the Ukrainian people in Canada and Ukraine;
- v) Presentations, lectures, and other undertakings to enable Members to function more effectively and participate more fully within the context of the broader Canadian society;
- vi) Charitable works;
- vii) Programs and activities of a social and recreational nature.

Power to Acquire and Hold Property

6. The Parish shall have the power to acquire and maintain such physical facilities as are deemed necessary to house the activities required to achieve its Aims and Objectives, including a house of worship, chapels, auditoriums, classrooms, meeting rooms, library, boardrooms, recreational facilities, etc. (ref. Para. 92)

Power to Hire

7. In order to ensure implementation of its services and programs and proper maintenance of its facilities, the Parish shall have authority to hire full-time or part-time personnel, enter into purchase-of-service contracts, recruit volunteers, and otherwise provide the personnel required to administer Parish affairs, carry out its programs, and deliver its services.

SECTION III MEMBERS; MEMBERSHIP

Qualifications to Become a Member

8. Every Orthodox Christian person who is eighteen (18) years of age or older and who acknowledges the faith, teachings, traditions, and customs of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada, and is of good character, may apply for Membership in the Parish through the procedure given below. Upon acceptance and approval of the application by the Parish Council and fulfilment of related obligations, that person becomes a Member of the Parish.

9. A Spouse of a Member of the Parish who in his/her own right is not qualified to become a Member as per 8. above may, with the concurrence of the Member Spouse and the Parish Council, become a Spousal Member of the Parish.

Types of Membership

10. (a) Individual Membership is membership in his/her own right by an individual Member, ("Individual Member").

(b) In the event of death of the partner in a Spousal Membership qualified to be a Member in his/her own right, a surviving Spousal Member may, with the Parish Council's concurrence, remain a Spousal Member of the Parish with the right of appeal to a General Meeting of Members should the Council determine otherwise.

Life Membership; Honorary Membership

11. (a) Widows of those Priests who die while appointed to the Parish may, with their agreement, be granted the status of Life Members of the Parish, shall be excused from payment of dues, but shall enjoy all the rights and privileges by other Members of the Parish.

(b) Honorary Membership may be extended to specific individuals by the action of the Parish Council, as approved by a regularly-constituted General Meeting of Members. Honorary Members shall not be required to pay dues, and their Membership will not confer any rights related to Parish governance, such as the right at Meetings of Parish Members to vote, run for office, or be counted in the quorum. Honorary Members, however, may as appropriate, participate in the spiritual and other services and programs available in the Parish.

Application for Membership

12. (a) An individual who wishes to become a Member or Spousal Member of the Parish and who is otherwise qualified as per 8. or 9. above, shall

i. submit the prescribed "Application for Membership" to the Parish Council;

ii. include with it as a token of earnest a sum of money in an amount corresponding to the membership dues as set for the current year by the Annual Meeting of Members in the amount pro-rated from the first day of the month in which the application is submitted to the end of the Parish Fiscal Year.

(b) The completed "Application for Membership" shall be reviewed by the Parish Council and the Priest and following such a review at the next closest meeting of the Council a decision to accept or reject the application by motion properly moved, seconded, and voted upon shall be entered in the minutes of that meeting and the token of earnest shall become payment of Membership Dues to the end of the current fiscal year.

13. (a) In the event of a favourable vote, the Applicant's name shall be entered in the Register of Parish Members and he/she informed of the fact in writing.

(b) In the event of an unfavourable vote, the Applicant shall be duly informed in writing and the full amount of moneys paid by him/her returned.

(c) An Applicant whose Application for Membership has been rejected shall have the right of appeal to the next General Meeting of Members of the Parish qualified to conduct business.

(d) Should a majority of Members at the General Meeting of Members grant the appeal, the name of the Appellant after payment of the appropriate dues shall be entered into the Register of Parish Members.

Rights of Members

14. (a) Every Member shall have the right:

i. to participate in all General and Special Meetings of Members of the Parish; and, to be counted in the quorum;

ii. to have a voice in discussion;

iii. to vote on all matters presented to the Members;

iv. to vote in the election of Members and Officers of the Parish Council; and,

v. to be a candidate during such elections.

(b) Spousal Members may attend General Meetings of Members of the Parish and may, at the discretion of the Chair, be extended the privilege of participating in discussion; but may not vote on any matter; be a candidate to a position on the Parish Council; or be counted in the quorum.

15. Every Member and Spousal Member shall enjoy access, as appropriate, to the spiritual services provided in the Parish, as well as access to participation in the cultural, educational, social, charitable, and recreational activities available in the Parish.

Obligations of Members

16. (a) It shall be the obligation of every Member

i. to fulfil to the best of his/her ability the spiritual duties set upon Orthodox Christians by the Universal Orthodox Church in general, and by the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada, in particular; and,

ii. in his/her personal, family, professional, and public life to act in a manner likely to bring credit to the Parish.

(b) It shall be the obligation of every Member and Spousal Member to participate, as possible and appropriate, in the various spiritual, social, educational, charitable, recreational, and other activities undertaken by the Parish.

(c) It shall be the obligation of every Member and Spousal Member of the Parish to safeguard the welfare of the Parish and to work for its growth in terms of membership, activities, resources, capital facilities, through personal participation, volunteer effort, and financial contribution

Dues

17. (a) Annual Membership Dues shall be paid by those holding an Individual Membership or a Spousal Membership in the amount set by the Annual Meeting of Members for each specific class of Members and Memberships.

(b) The annual Membership Dues shall fall due on January 1st, the beginning of the Parish Fiscal year, and shall be paid for the current year by no later than March 31.

18. (a) Members and Spousal Members who as of June 30 are in arrears in respect of dues for the current year shall lose all the privileges in 14 (a) above.

(b) Members and Spousal Members in arrears for fewer than two (2) years, including the current year, may achieve reinstatement by paying in full the amount in arrears, including dues for the current year.

(c) i. Members and Spousal Members who are in arrears for two (2) years or more including the current year shall be deemed to have ceased to be Members or Spousal Members, as applicable, of the Parish. Such persons who seek to be reinstated as Members or Associate Members of the Parish shall submit an "Application for Membership" as per 12. above.

ii. Such an application from a lapsed individual Spousal Member shall be considered only on the basis of that Spousal Member's past association with the Parish as a partner in a Spousal Membership.

Cause for Suspension of Member's Rights; Expulsion

19. The Parish Council shall take immediate remedial action should it come to its attention that a Member or Members and/or Spousal Member or Members, have individually or together knowingly by word or deed acted:

- i. to bring the good name of the Parish or the UOCC into disrepute;
- ii. to affect adversely the welfare of the Parish or the UOCC;
- iii. to affect adversely the unity and good order of the Parish or the UOCC;
- iv. to commit heresy, blasphemy, sacrilege, schism, and/or otherwise to act contrary to the dogmas, canons, beliefs, and traditions of the Universal Orthodox Church in general, and the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada in particular.

Procedures re: Suspension, Expulsion

20. (a) On being made aware of particulars related to 19 above in respect of any Member or Spousal Member of the Parish by the Parish Council or any Member of it, or by the Priest, the matter shall be placed on the Agenda of the next nearest regular or special meeting of the Parish Council.

(b) i. It shall be noted in the Minutes of that Meeting that the truth of the matter will be the subject of an inquiry by a Committee of the Whole, the first meeting of which Committee shall take place immediately after adjournment of that regular or special meeting of the Council. Minutes shall be kept of this and every other meeting of the Committee of the Whole.

ii. Time is of the essence.

iii. The Committee of the Whole shall draw up and submit to the Parish Council a report of its findings regarding the truth of the matter.

iv. Where the matter pertains in whole or in part to 19 (iv) above, a recommendation shall be made to refer the matter or that part of the matter to the Eparchial Bishop for resolution.

21. (a) Should the Committee of the Whole find that the matter lacks credible substance, it will so report to the Parish Council and the Council shall dismiss the matter.

(b) Should the Committee of the Whole find that actions as outlined in 19 i., ii., iii., iv., above have indeed taken place, and that these have adversely affected the interest of the Parish, the Council shall place the matter on the Agenda of the next nearest General Meeting of Members together with a recommendation as to what sanctions, if any, might be applied, and at which time those concerned, having received written notice of the meeting as per paragraph 29 by registered mail, shall be provided an opportunity to speak in their own defense.

Sanctions

22. (a) The sanctions in 21 (b) above might consist of one, several, or all of the following:

- i. a vote of censure by the Meeting;
- ii. suspension of Member's rights for a specified period of probation, followed by reinstatement, if considered appropriate;
- iii. expulsion from Membership in the Parish.

(b) i. Where the matter relates to activities under 19 (iv) no action will be taken until the Parish Council has been informed of the Eparchial Bishop's finding and decision in the matter.

ii. According to the nature of the Bishop's finding and decision, the matter shall be referred to the next nearest General Meeting of Members at which time sanctions as per (a) above, or as recommended by the Bishop, may be applied.

Right of Appeal

23. (a) i. Sanctions imposed by a General Meeting of Members may be appealed to the Consistory of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada which appeal must be submitted in writing no later than thirty (30) days beginning with the day on which the General Meeting at which sanctions were imposed was held, with a copy of the appeal sent to the Parish.

ii. Pending the Consistory's findings, the rights of Member(s) in question shall be suspended.

(b) Should the Consistory grant the appeal, the decision of the General Meeting of Members shall be deemed to be null and void.

(c) A recommendation by the Consistory to mitigate the sanction shall be placed on the Agenda of the next nearest General Meeting of Members.

(d) Adverse findings by the Eparchial Bishop may be appealed to the Synod of Bishops, with a copy of the appeal sent to the Parish .

Officers or Other Members of the Parish Council

24. (a) i. Should any of 19 i., ii., iii., or iv. relate to a person or persons who hold positions on the Parish Council such person or persons shall cease to participate in all activities of the Council and all related duties, or to be counted in the quorum, until the matter has been resolved as per 23. above.

ii. Should the General Meeting of Members determine to apply any of the sanctions noted in 22 (a) i., ii., iii. above and the matter be appealed to the Consistory, to the Eparchial Bishop, or to both, the person or persons shall not participate in any activities of the Council and related duties until a decision regarding the appeal has been rendered.

(b) Should the appeal as in 23. above be rejected, the person(s) shall cease to be de jure holders of positions on the Parish Council which positions shall be declared vacant.

Application to Life Members, Honorary Members

25. The provisions of Sections 19, 20, 21, 22, and 23 shall also apply mutatis mutandis to Life and to Honorary Members.

Section IV

MEETINGS OF PARISH MEMBERS

26. From time to time, but not less than once per calendar year, there shall be held General Meetings of Parish Members notice of which shall be provided Members in the manner prescribed below.

26 (a) When possible meetings of parish members, council members and committee members shall be held in person.

26 (b) Alternately where necessary a meeting may be conducted by electron means.

Any person entitled to attend a meeting may participate in the electronic meeting, in accordance with the regulations, if any, by means of a telephonic, electronic or other communication facility that permits all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting, if parish makes available such a communication facility.

A person so participating is deemed for all purposes to be present at that meeting.

Types of Meetings: General, Annual, Informational, Special Meetings

27. (a) The General Meetings of Members may be:

i. Business Meetings at which decisions binding on the Parish Council and/or Members are arrived at and which are recorded in the Minutes; or

ii. Informational Meetings called for the purpose of providing information to Members and for an exchange of opinions but at which no binding decisions are reached and the Minutes of which may be limited to recording the purpose of the Meeting and the fact that it occurred.

iii. Special Meetings (ref. Paras 30, 37 below).

(b) When only one General Meeting of Members is held in a calendar year, that Meeting shall be the Annual Meeting of Members.

28. Annual Meeting of Members shall be called for a day as early as practical after the beginning of the Parish Fiscal Year but no later than for the last Sunday of March.

Notice

29. (a) General Meetings of Members convened to conduct business, including the Annual Meeting, shall be called by written notice issued by the Parish Council, signed by the President and Secretary, and sent to all Members by email and to all members without email by Canada Post which notice may be supplemented through a public announcement by the Priest in church on two successive Sundays; and/or, through printing in two consecutive numbers of the Parish bulletin/newsletter and also posted on the Parish Bulletin Board.

(b) Informational Meetings of Members may be called by written notice issued by the Parish Council, signed by the President and Secretary, and sent to all Members by email and to all Members without email by Canada Post, which notice may be supplemented by the Priest in church on two successive Sundays; and/or, through printing in two consecutive numbers of the Parish bulletin/newsletter; and through posting on the Parish Bulletin Board.

(c) Except in cases of Special Meetings, Members must be given notice a full thirty (30) calendar days before the day for which the Meeting is called. The notice will include the place, date, and hour of the Meeting and also the proposed agenda.

30. (a) Notice for Special Meetings shall be not less than fourteen (14) full calendar days and the authority convoking a Special Meeting shall use the appropriate means of sending such notice in writing to every member, which notice shall be signed by the individual(s) convoking the meeting.

(b) In addition to the written notice as in (a) above, if feasible, the Special Meeting shall be announced by the Priest on the nearest Sunday after issuance of the notice and an announcement concerning the meeting shall be posted on the Parish Bulletin Board.

Quorum

31. (a) i. At Informational Meetings, during which no business requiring a vote is to be transacted, the quorum shall consist of not less than twenty-five (25) Members in good standing and present at the set hour.

32. Should the Parish Council consider the attendance insufficient to proceed with the Meeting, it shall have the option to cancel the Meeting or delay the calling to order of the Meeting by no more than fourteen (14) days. In the latter case the Meeting shall be deemed to be the same Meeting originally scheduled and a new thirty (30) days' notice shall not be required.

33. (a) At Meetings during which business requiring a vote is to be transacted, the quorum shall be twenty-five (25) Members of the Parish in good standing and present at the appointed hour.

(b) Should such a quorum not be present at the appointed hour, the calling to order of the Meeting shall be delayed no more than fourteen (14) calendar days and it will be the same Meeting originally scheduled and a new thirty (30) days notice shall not be required. The quorum for this delayed Meeting shall be twenty-five (25) members in good standing and present at the appointed hour.

34. Should a quorum of twenty-five Members in good standing not be present at the delayed Meeting described in Paragraph 33 (b), the Meeting shall be cancelled and a new Notice of Meeting issued as per Paragraph 29 (a).

Chairing of Meetings

35. All General Meetings of Members, with the exceptions noted below, shall be chaired by the President of the Parish Council, or failing him, the First Vice-President, or, failing him, the Second Vice-President, or subsequently any other Member of the Parish Council delegated by the Council; and minutes of the Meeting shall be taken by the Secretary of the Parish Council, or, failing him, any other person delegated by the Council.

36. Annual Meetings of Parish Members shall be conducted by a Meeting Presidium to consist of a Chairman and a Secretary elected for that purpose by Members in attendance. Should the Meeting so wish, an Assistant Secretary may also be appointed to the Presidium.

37. (a) i. A Special Meeting called by the Parish Council shall be chaired as in 35 above.

ii. A Special Meeting called by the Audit Committee or pursuant to a petition of Parish Members shall be conducted in the manner as provided for Annual Meetings in 36 above.

iii. A Special Meeting called by the Consistory of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada shall be chaired and conducted as directed by the Consistory.

iv. A Special Meeting called to inquire into, examine, consider the activities of an Officer or Officers, Member or Members, of the Parish Council, and their fitness to hold office shall be conducted as per 36 above.

Manner of Voting

38. (a) At all Meetings at which it is proper for a vote to be taken,

i. Voting shall be by a show of hands and the tally shall be taken by the Secretary(s) with such assistance of others as may be required.

ii. Voting may be by secret ballot on motion properly made, seconded, and passed. No fewer than three persons, acceptable to all present, shall be appointed scrutineers by the Chair.

iii. There shall be no voting by proxy.

iv. The decision shall be determined solely by the number of votes cast.

v. Except in the case of voting by ballot, at the request of any Member(s), the Secretary(s) shall record his/their vote or abstention.

(b) At all Meetings at which a vote may properly be taken, the Chair of the Meeting shall have a casting vote.

Annual Meeting of Members

39. The Annual Meeting of Members shall be the main deliberative and decision-making body for the ordering of Parish affairs.

Agenda of Annual Meetings

40. The following Agenda shall govern the Annual Meeting:

1. Call to order by the Parish Council Chair
2. Opening Prayer and Commemoration of deceased Members

Special Meetings

41. A Special Meeting shall have the authority to inquire into, examine, and decide all matters presented in the agenda included in the notice of the meeting, except as specified in 47 below.

42. Special Meetings may be held when considered warranted and only as a dire necessity, and may be called by:

- i. the Parish Council on its own initiative; or,
- ii. at the written request of the Audit Committee; or,
- iii. by a petition signed by one-third of the current Members in good standing of the Parish;
- iv. by the Consistory of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada.

43. Should the Parish Council refuse or fail to call a Special Meeting at the request of the Audit Committee, or in response to a petition by Members, as per ii. and iii. above, the Meeting shall be called by the Audit Committee.

44. (a) When considered warranted and only as a dire necessity, the Parish Council may be directed by the Consistory of the Ukrainian Orthodox Church of Canada to call a Special Meeting of Members.

(b) Should the Parish Council refuse or fail to call a Special Meeting as per (a) above within fourteen (14) days after having been directed by the Consistory to do so, the Consistory may direct the Audit Committee to call such a Meeting.

(c) Should the Audit Committee refuse or fail to call the Special Meeting as per (b) above, the Special Meeting may be called directly by the Consistory itself.

45. (a) Notice required for Special Meetings shall be determined by the urgency of the matters to be acted upon, but shall be no less than fourteen (14) calendar days.

(b) Such notice shall be in writing and sent to all Members individually, and shall include the agenda. No matter may be acted upon at the Special Meeting that has not been included in the agenda presented with the notice.

46. Decisions through motions properly made, seconded and passed at a Special Meeting, shall have the same validity and power as motions made, seconded, and passed at an Annual General Meeting of Members of the Parish.

47. No decision reached at a Special Meeting is proper, valid, or binding if it is in any way contrary to or seeks to alter any matter that is under Section I of this Constitution.

Section V The Parish Council

Composition of the Parish Council

48. (a) The Parish Council shall consist of nine (9) voting Members, of whom eight (8) shall also be Officers of the Parish, elected at the Annual Meeting of Members of the Parish or otherwise appointed to office as provided by this Constitution. These shall be:

- 1) Chairperson
- 2) First Vice-Chairperson
- 3) Second Vice-Chairperson
- 4) Secretary
- 5) Treasurer
- 6) Financial Secretary
- 7) Property Manager
- 8) Cultural/Educational Director
- 9) Member-at-Large

(b) The Annual General Meeting shall also elect two Alternate Members for the Parish Council:

- 1) First Alternate Member
- 2) Second Alternate Member

Term of Office

49. (a) The Officers and Members of the Parish Council elected at an Annual Meeting of Members, or otherwise appointed, shall hold office until the close of the Annual Meeting at which their successors are elected, or until they are replaced as provided by this Constitution. Officers and members of the preceding Parish Council shall attend the first meeting of the newly-elected council to transfer all Parish documents and records in their custody and possession.

(b) No person shall serve on the Parish Council in any capacity for more than seven (7) consecutive terms and no such person shall be included in the list of nominees presented by the Nominating Committee to the Annual Meeting of Members, or nominated from the floor. Such person shall once more become eligible for nomination only after his absence from membership on the Council for at least one term has elapsed.

(c) In the case that the Nominating Committee is not able to identify a suitably qualified and available nominee for a given Parish Council position, and if a current council member is available and willing to fill the position even if they are exceeding the maximum term limit of seven (7) years, then the maximum term limit for the current council member shall be waived for that individual, subject to approval by the parish general membership at a parish general meeting, on a case by case basis.

Nomination and Election to the Parish Council

50. A list of Nominees for positions on the Parish Council shall be presented to the Annual Meeting by the Chairperson of the Nominating Committee chosen by the previous Annual Meeting of Members to seek out nominees for positions on the Parish Council and to nominate them; or, failing him/her, another member of the Nominating Committee.

51. Presentation of the list shall constitute nomination of each specific Officer and Member of the Parish Council individually.

52. Members present at the Meeting may nominate individually additional candidates for specific positions of Officers or Members of the Parish Council.

53. Where there is no nomination from the floor for a particular position, the nominee included in the list presented by the Nominating Committee shall be declared elected by acclamation.

54. Persons included in the list as presented by the Nominating Committee, or nominated from the floor, but who are not present in person at the Annual Meeting shall not stand for election if the Nominating Committee or the nominator has not been provided by them with written agreement to stand for the position.

No Personal Benefit

55. (a) Employees of the Parish or other persons receiving a financial benefit from the Parish, even if otherwise qualified, shall stand for election and serve only on condition that they cease employment or the receipt of the financial benefit for the term of their office.

(b) No Member of the Parish Council and no Member of a Standing or Ad hoc Committee shall have a beneficial interest in Council, Standing Committee, or Ad hoc Committee membership.

(c) Members of the Parish Council, Standing, or Ad hoc committees shall serve without remuneration.

Manner of Election

56. A separate vote shall be held for every position on the Parish Council, except where election is by acclamation.

57. (a) Where there is more than one candidate for a position elections shall be held either by show of hands; or by secret ballot, through motion properly made, seconded, and passed.

(b) Where there are two (2) candidates for a specific position, election shall be by a simple majority of votes cast.

(c) i. Where there are more than two (2) candidates for a position as Officer on the Council that candidate who receives the majority of votes cast shall be declared elected.

ii. Should, after the first vote, no candidate for a position as Officer on the Council receive a majority of votes cast, that candidate receiving the least number of votes cast shall retire from the field and another vote taken; and this shall be repeated until a candidate has been elected through a majority of votes cast.

iii. All other elections, other than those of Officers on the Parish Council, in which there are more than two (2) candidates, shall be determined through a plurality of votes cast.

(d) There shall be no voting by proxy.

Standing Committees

58. The Parish Council shall form from among Officers and Members Standing Committees including those dealing with:

- 1) Parish Membership;
- 2) Finance and Investments;
- 3) Worship Services/Religious Education;
- 4) Charitable Works;
- 5) Culture and Heritage Education;
- 6) Facilities and Maintenance.

59. (a) Every Standing Committee except that on Worship Services/Religious Education, shall be chaired by an Officer or Member, including Alternate Member, of the Parish Council. It shall report to the Parish Council and through the Chair of the Council to the Annual Meeting of Parish Members.

(b) The Standing Committee on Worship Services/Religious Education shall be chaired by the Parish Priest, or an alternate named by him, and a report of its activities shall be included in the report made by the Priest to the Annual Meeting of Members.

60. Chairpersons of Standing Committees may, if they wish and with the concurrence of the Parish Council. co-opt other Parish Members to serve on their Standing Committees.

Ad Hoc Committees

61. The Parish Council shall have the power to form such Ad hoc Committees as it considers necessary; and shall be free to co-opt to serve on such committees any Parish Members in any capacity.

Reporting; Disbursal of Funds by Committees

62. Standing and Ad hoc Committees shall report to the Parish Council through their chairpersons, and disburse only those funds allocated them by the Council.

Chairperson an ex officio Member of Committees

63. The Chairperson of the Parish Council shall be ex officio a member of all Standing and ad hoc committees of the Council.

Parish Council, Frequency of Meetings

64. (a) The Parish Council shall meet no less than ten (10) times in the twelve months of its term; and no less than two (2) times in any quarter of its term.

(b) At meetings of the Parish Council the quorum shall be 'half the number plus one' of members of the Council serving at the time the meeting is held.

Vacancies

65. (a) When vacancies on the Council occur, they shall be filled by Council action from among its current constituents, and the Alternate Members.

(b) Should the number of Officers fall below eight (8) and it prove impossible to fill vacancies as per (a) above, a Special Meeting of Parish Members shall be called to fill those specific vacancies.

Right to Set Procedures

66. The Parish Council shall have the right to set procedures to govern its meetings and operation which procedures shall be based on the principle of majority rule.

Right to Attend Meetings

67. (a) Alternate Members also shall have the right to attend all regular meetings of the Parish Council as such, and participate in proceedings as agreed to by a consensus or vote of the meeting but shall not be counted in the quorum and shall not vote.

(b) Members of the Parish shall have the right to attend regular meetings of the Parish Council as observers but shall not otherwise participate in the proceedings.
